Message from the
Hon'ble Vice Chancellor

Dear Aspirants,

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome you all to this Century old seat of premier teaching-learning and research, an Institution of Eminence, University of Delhi, for admission to the Five-Year Integrated Law Program, B.A. LL.B. (Honours) and B.B.A. LL.B. (Honours) for the Academic Year 2024-25.

Since its inception in 1924, the Century old Faculty of Law, one of the 16 Faculties of the University has established itself as a leader in dissemination of legal education par excellence. Several legal luminaries including Judges of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and High Courts of our Nation, leading advocates, political leaders and policy makers have studied in the Faculty of Law and have enriched themselves in the knowledge domain of Law while studying in this University.

It gives me immense pleasure to share that the nature of the legal education practiced by the Faculty of Law is not limited only to the classroom teaching-learning but is embedded with training program and other relevant activities which includes national and international seminars, conferences, workshops, community outreach, legal-aids, moot courts to develop legal acumen in the students while enriching their knowledge on contemporary legal issues.

In order to further augment the horizon of legal education with a multidisciplinary approach, very much in line with the path breaking National Education Policy, 2020, the Faculty of Law has envisioned to introduce Five-Year Integrated Law Program, B.A. LL.B. (Honours) and B.B.A. LL.B. (Honours) with effect from the academic session 2023-24, which has been approved by the Bar Council of India.

It is a matter of immense pride that our university has stood tall in various academic rankings, both at the National and International level. Notably, National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) has ranked the University of Delhi at 11th among the Universities category and ranked 22 among all categories of Academic Institutions.

At the International level, QS Sustainability ranking 2024 has placed the University of Delhi at Number One position in India, 52 in Asia and 220 Globally. QS Asia University ranking 2024 has placed the University of Delhi at 11 for Southern Asia and 94 for Asia. QS World University ranking 2024 has placed the University of Delhi at 407 Globally. Centre for World University rankings (CWUR) has placed University of Delhi at 07 for the year 2023.

Similarly, Times Higher Education World University Ranking 2024 has put the University of Delhi in the range of 801-1000 with the national rank of 25. These National and International University rankings clearly and unambiguously reflect the rich legacy of quality teaching-learning, cutting edge research and remarkable social outreach of the University being practiced for over a Century of its existence.

I am sure students enrolled in this program will be able to imbibe knowledge and understanding of multiple knowledge domains while studying Law as a prime subject which will eventually help them in their future professional endeavors.

I wish every success to the students who enroll for the Five-Year Integrated Law Programs for their multifaceted development in life.

Best Wishes!

Yogesh Singh

About the Faculty of Law

The University of Delhi is a Central University functioning under the Act of Parliament. It is recognized as an institution of national importance by the Constitution of India (Seventh Schedule, List-I, Entry-63).

The Faculty of Law was established in 1924 by the University of Delhi and is an accredited legal institution by the Bar Council of India for its LL.B. degree. The Faculty of Law runs LL.B. programs in three Centres, while LL.M. and Ph.D. are conducted at the level of the Faculty.

The Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) Degree Course was initially treated as a two-year part-time Course and teaching was conducted in the morning with ten teachers. The evening classes commenced in the year 1942. Two new courses, viz. Degree of Bachelor of Civil Laws (B.C.L.) and Certificate of Proficiency (Law) were made full-time Courses, though classes were held both in the morning as well as in the evening. With the enactment of the Advocates Act, 1961, the Certificate of Proficiency (Law) Course was abolished. The year 1966 was memorable in the history of the Faculty of Law and legal education in the country. The then Dean, Prof. P.K. Tripathi and his team of dedicated teachers adopted and implemented almost all the recommendations of the Gajendragadkar Committee on Legal Education, 1964 (appointed by the then Vice-Chancellor, Dr. C.D. Deshmukh). The two-year LL.B. Course was converted into a three-year (six semesters) Course and the B.C.L. Degree course was discontinued in 1966.

In 1944, one year Master of Laws (LL.M.) was introduced. The LL.M. Course was made a full-time two-year Course in the year 1947. This course continues till date.

The mid-sixties saw the introduction of two-year course titled Master of Comparative Laws (M.C.L.) for foreign students.

Around the same time LL.M. (3 Year) was introduced to enable working persons to acquire the LL.M. degree by studying the same courses of LL.M. (2 Year) spread over a period of three years.

The University of Delhi completed a hundred years of glorious service in 2022. Many new initiatives were taken up as part of the Centenary Celebrations. One such flagship program introduced during the centennial year was the Five-Year Integrated Law Courses, i.e., B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) and B.B.A. LL.B.(Hons.) under the Faculty of Law.

Choosing the option 'Upgrade' will mean that the candidate consents to consideration of an offer of admission to a Program of his/her higher preference in the subsequent round (if any). His/her current admitted seat will be auto-canceled if the new preference is allocated.

The Program in which the candidate had taken an admission earlier will never be offered to the candidate in any subsequent round.
