

GoogleForm <https://forms.gle/9A9qFWb4SSYgN1KT6>

Kindly note that the last date for registration is November 11, 2022.

The DSW office, thus invites bonafide regular students of University of Delhi studying in any Course/Stream at the Undergraduate and Postgraduate levels to apply for the 'Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme' (VCIS).

The areas of interest available under this scheme are as follows:

- Vice Chancellor's Office/ Pro Vice Chancellor's Office/Office of Dean of Colleges/ Director South Campus Office/ Proctor Office/ Office of Dean Students' Welfare/Registrar's Office
- Central Reference Library/ Science Library/ Departmental Libraries/ Departmental Labs
- Examination Branch/ Admission Branch/ Research Council, Sports Council
- Equal Opportunity Cell - (including readers -writers for visually challenged)
- Cluster Innovation Centre /Institute of Life Long Learning/ WSDC/ Centre of Global Studies, etc.
- SOL, NCWEB
- Any other as approved by the competent authority.

Important Highlights of the scheme are:

- Part-time Internship during the academic session may contain a flexible 8 - 10 hours per week. (Stipend Rs. 5,000 per month).
- VCIS can be availed by a student only once during a course of study at the University of Delhi.
- Maximum period of an internship shall not exceed six months under any circumstances from the time of joining.
- A certificate from the Dean of Students' Welfare at the end of the internship tenure subject to the appraisal report from the concerned employing Department/ Centres/ Institutes.

You are requested to encourage students to register for the VCIS Internship Program through the Google form <https://forms.gle/9A9qFWb4SSYgN1KT6>

Kindly note that the last date for registration is November 11, 2022.